

JUNKYARD DRIVE

Same Old Story

(From Black Coffee)

[Verse 1]

Everyone seems so happy
So you fake a smile
Nobody will notice
How you're feeling inside
So keep on laughing
Your jokes will run out
And soon you'll be facing
A mind full of doubt

[Chorus]

You are always welcome
That's what they say

I am longing
For a change
Same old story
Day by day
I've been wasting
Too much time
Listening to, all your lies
I need an honest mind

I need an honest mind

[Verse 2]

Mouths keep repeating
The same old line:
The usual "How are you?"
The usual "I'm fine"
What would have happened
If somebody said
What makes them feel angry
What makes them afraid

JUNKYARD DRIVE

[Chorus]

You are always welcome
That's what they say

I am longing
For a change
Same old story
Day by day
I've been wasting
Too much time
Listening to, all your lies
I need an honest mind
